

CONFERENCE

15 OCTOBER 10,30 hs. (on line)

Reflections on EU Observatory on Agricultural Land, Control and Access to Farmland

Dir. Esther Muñiz Espada, CEDR President. Universidad de Valladolid.

Coord. Juan M. López Torres, Asaja, Jaen.

*The CONFERENCE aims to lay the analytical groundwork for the eventual creation of a European observatory designed to improve transparency and understanding of the agricultural land market in the European Union
What are your ideas for setting up this observatory?*

Speakers:

From UK

Nerys Llewelyn Jones, Agri advisor, Carmarthenshire.

Michael Cardwell, University of Leeds.

Ludivine Petetin, Cardiff University.

From Italy, Access to Farmland and the Legal Framework for Land Banks in Italy: Insights for the future EU Observatory.

Giuliana Strambi, National Research Council of Italy (CNR), Florence.

From Germany, Transparency without Competence? Lessons from Germany's Fragmented Farmland Governance for an EU Observatory

José Martinez, Institut für Landwirtschaftsrecht, Georg-August-Universität Göttingen.

From Slovak, Legal and Practical Challenges of Access to Agricultural Land in Slovakia.

Lucia Palsova, Slovak University of agricultural in Nitra.

Anna Bandlerová, Slovak University of agricultural in Nitra.

From Hungary, Legal Challenges of Acces to Agricultural Land in Hungary.

Itsvan Temesi, Hungarian University of Agricultural and Life Science.

Ágoston Korom, Hungarian University of Agricultural and Life Science.

From Poland, Selected current issues relating to access to agricultural real estate in Poland

Aneta Suchon, University of Poznan.

Close Congress: Roland Norer, DG CEDR.